AMERICA & THE KING

UNION JACK SALUTED AT WASHINGTON

DRAMATIC SCENES

London, Yesterday.
Among the outstanding incidents in Mr. Ramsay MacDonald's hectic programme on Friday, there was a dramatic moment at the luncheon of the English Speaking Union, when the ex-Ambassador to Great Britain, Mr. J. Davis, toasted King George. All lights were dimmed and a spot-light was flashed on to the balcony, revealing the Union Jack fluttering in the breeze of an electric fan. The whole company rose and sang "God Save the King."
In the course of a speech, Mr. MacDonald confessed that he was beginning to long to return to Looe in Cornwall.

Mr. MacDonald had a narrow escape this afternoon when returning from his hotel down Fifth Avenue with a motor cycle police escort. He was suddenly confronted by three fire engines rushing in response to a call. The brakes were jammed on in the Premier's car in the nick of time to avoid a collision.

Speaking at a tea given by the Foreign Policy Association, Mr. MacDonald referred to the informal and even irregular conversations with General Daves (who is famed for the expletive "Hell and Maria") and his explanation of the irregularity caused loud laughter. He declared that those who knew General Daves could imagine the language he occasionally used.

Patience and Goodwill
New York, Later.

Addressing the largest audience in his career, Mr. MacDonald, whose speech was broadcast throughout the States, also to England, as the guest of the Council of Foreign Relations at a banquet at the Ritz Carlton, eloquently pleaded for patience and goodwill on the part of the American people. While Britons might change their minds on sea armaments, he pointed out that Britain's Navy was Great Britain's security.

Discordant Voices
Mr. MacDonald said that the "heartening transactions of the past week" had been generally applauded, but in some quarters, "mostly remote beyond the seas," there had been a few discordant voices. Mr. MacDonald declared that such people were out of date and had no conception of the new spirit that was determined to dominate the world—the spirit of open diplomacy; of men coming together not with the purpose of dividing the world into groups, but of helping the world to come to a general agreement. He emphasized that nothing was discussed between himself and President Hoover which the English and American Governments would not be happy to see discussed on the same basis with all the Powers of the World.

Enthroning Peace
The understanding we have been trying to establish will always be incomplete and unsatisfactory until it becomes the common possession of all nations.

"We have not come together for the purpose of enthroning peace over the Atlantic, but for the purpose of trying to enthrone peace over the world." He declared that there was no better way of preventing the development of national fears and suspicions that lead to war than to prevent competition in armaments, and said that to limit the development arms "you compel your statesmen, you compel yourselves to trust political security to the security of justice."

He dwelt on the part the navy played in Great Britain's history and added "patience and goodwill will enable us to change the nature of our minds, and put in its place a more modern, comfortable and substantial furniture for future use."

MAGISTRATE HIDES IN A TOWER

OUTLAWS' AMBUSH

STIRRING TALE OF HEROISM UP-COUNTRY

DASH THROUGH FIRE FOR AID

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Pakhal, Kongmoon, Yesterday.

How the District Magistrate of Hoiping was ambushed by bandits and how he and his handful of protectors held out in an old tower is being related by the militia who proceeded up-country to his aid and have now returned.

At the town of Sze Kau, the Magistrate was inspecting some new malloos (roads). The robbers rushed up suddenly. The bodyguards of the Magistrate fought a stubborn rearguard action until safely inside the strong watch tower.

One of the guards was selected when, in response to the Magistrate's call, all stepped forward to volunteer for the hazardous duty of running the gauntlet for assistance. Fled in Disorder

While the defenders kept the outlaws at bay, the messenger called upon the Militia of neighbouring townships.

Just as reinforcements were closing in, the bandits sized up the position as untenable and fled in disorder. In the flight they suffered several casualties.

The Magistrate then arrested several suspects.

ously with the different national interests, said that in addition to English and American efforts, "we have been working in Europe with considerable success," ensuring that public opinion is demanding from those responsible for their Governments not only to take the risk of war when they begin to compete in armaments, but to take the risk of peace.

Nothing to Fear
"I will take it," he declared, dramatically, amid applause. Mr. MacDonald stressed the importance of signatures to the Peace Pact and drew attention to Britain and the Dominions, who signed the optional clause at Geneva, pledging themselves to submit to The Hague Court, and exclaimed, "We have nothing to fear. If we are right we win our case. If wrong, we do not deserve to win."

He concluded: "We both are justified in seeing the shining feet of the coming peace-makers coming over the horizon."—Reuter's American Service.

Implicit Trust

London, Saturday.
Mr. Ramsay MacDonald who is now in New York, had a day crowded with engagements yesterday. In the morning he received a deputation representing American Jewry, on whose behalf Doctor Felix Warburg handed him a memorandum stating that implicit trust and confidence in the British Mandatory Government of Palestine had induced the American Jews to enlist the co-operation of groups not heretofore interested in the affairs of Palestine. Many new enterprises were being prepared for Palestine by Jews of America, said the memorandum, which expressed full confidence in the Commission of Inquiry which is inquiring into the recent disorders in Palestine.

Thoroughly Impartial
Mr. MacDonald, in reply, described the steps taken by the British Mandatory Government to restore order in Palestine, and said that the Commission of Inquiry would be thoroughly impartial. He praised the extraordinary devotion with which Jews of the world, and particularly of America, had pursued their work in the re-building of Palestine.

The Premier was then the guest of honour at a gathering arranged jointly by the St. Andrews, St. George's, and St. David's Societies, and the English-Speaking Union of the United States. Covers were laid for no less than 6,000 persons. Sir James Howard, the British Ambassador, came specially from Washington to be present.

Realism of Dreams
Mr. MacDonald in a subsequent speech, paid tribute to Sir James Howard, who he said had thrown down the barriers which had been erected against good understanding between the two nations. The British Premier said that the

THE R.101

SUCCESSFUL MOORING OF NEW GIANT AIRSHIP

THRILLED CROWDS

London, Yesterday.

The airship R.101 was taken out of its hangar this morning and successfully moored to the mast at Cardington. Work was at once begun preparatory to two days' trial at the mast head, after which the airship will begin a series of short flights.

The launch of the new airship took place at dawn. The news soon spread and hundreds of people came to witness the event. Tall first, the airship, which is 712 feet long, was hauled quickly from the hangar. Then, with her nose pointing to the mooring mast, which is 200 feet high, the R.101 was hauled down, roped to big rings in the ground, while the mooring cable from the mast head was linked with the mooring cable that runs through the nose cap of the ship. Then she was released, and floated slowly upwards. After three loads of ballast had been thrown overboard, she soared higher than the mast. The ropes tightened and gradually, with three winches at work, her nose was brought nearer and nearer to the head of the mast.

A burst of cheering came from the crowd when the ship's nose cap was seen to slip into the locking cup of the mast head. The swinging arm was withdrawn into the head, and the ship remained so motionless in the absence of wind, that she, too, looked almost part of the mast.—British Wireless Service.

BRUCE DEFEATED?

DECIDED SWING TO LABOUR IN AUSTRALIA

GENERAL ELECTION

Sydney, Yesterday.

Mr. Stanley Bruce is not yet safe, and is still 400 behind his Labour opponent. Many of his Ministers have been defeated. The new House will probably be 44 Labour, 16 Nationalists, 10 Country Party, 3 Independent Nationalists, 1 Country Progressive, and 1 Independent. The Senate, however, remains solidly Nationalist. Senators are elected for six years and a half and then retire every three years. Their last election was in 1928. Scullin, therefore, will be unable to carry out any extremist legislation, but he will be able to demand the dissolution of both houses if any measure is rejected in two consecutive sessions.—Reuter.

State of Parties

Sydney, Yesterday.

Labour has swept Australia at the Federal election.

The state of the parties previously quoted (and as reproduced below) was based on returns then available, namely from 2,546,000 out of a total of 3,500,000 voters enrolled. This is not considered definite, but is taken as a reliable forecast.

Mr. Bruce's party has been overwhelmed, and Bruce himself is likely to lose his seat. Many ministers have been defeated, but the "rebel" Nationalist, Mr. W. M. Hughes has been re-elected by a huge majority.

The Labour leader, Mr. Scullin is expected to form a Labour Government, with the deputy leader, Mr. Theodore, as Treasurer.

A Death Blow

Later.

Crowds wildly cheered the election results as they were announced from loud speakers outside the newspaper offices.

Mr. Hughes' declaration in the course of his election address that Mr. Bruce had delivered a death-blow to the Nationalist Party by his "impetuous attack" upon arbitration proved accurate.

The Labour landslide is considered the greatest party victory ever recorded in Australia.

Labour supporters are delighted, while Mr. Bruce's comment on the returns is "They are ghastly."

"Like Gentlemen"

A previous message was that Mr. Bruce made the statement "We are defeated, but we can take it like gentlemen."

Early messages from Melbourne stated that owing to small inter-State returns it was difficult to estimate the results, but it seemed safe to assume that Labour had a clear majority.

CHANG HSUEH-LIANG FOR NANKING

THE NEW WAR

HANDS FULL DEALING WITH RUSSIANS

BALANCE OF POWER

Three of the Yan military leaders in China having made their intentions known in regard to the new war, the fourth, General Chang Hsueh-liang of Manchuria, has also come out with a declaration.

With his hands full in dealing with the Russians around his frontier, he had declared unequivocally for the National Government and Marshal Chiang Kai-shek.

Which was only to be expected. He and his late father have been at war with the Christian General, more than once. And victory for the "Christian General" with the elimination of Chiang Kai-shek, would bring danger to Manchuria because the "Christian General's" influence is more apt to spread out into Manchuria than Chiang Kai-shek's, and Chiang Kai-shek is content to let Chang Hsueh-liang remain in Manchuria.

NEW PORT

Important Work for British Contractors

The Venizelot Government is engaged in a scheme for the complete modernisation of the Port of Piræus and the creation of an entirely new port at St. George's Bay. The constructional work is being carried out by a British syndicate in association with the English Electric Co., Limited, Sir William Arrol and Co., Limited, and other well-known British enterprises.

The plans have been prepared under the direct inspiration of M. Venizelos, and include the complete reconstruction of the local transport and electricity supply facilities.

Plan for Help
Chang Hsueh-liang, however, is unlikely to take an active part. Then there is General Yen Hsi-shan of Shansi, who is neutral. Spokes-

Little further has been heard about the Ironclads in Kwangsi. The pro-National Government column, consisting of "loyalists," Kwangsi-ite divisions, Cantonese Northerners are marking time, waiting for the Ironclads.

The Money Market
Canton remains outwardly unperturbed but, those in the know, anticipate developments as some of them have already come down to Hong Kong to speculate in the money market in notes of the Central Bank, Canton, with the help of their "inside information."

Victory for the Ironclads will bring the notes down and defeat will restore the notes to par.

PREPARATORY TESTS BEFORE KARACHI FLIGHT

LARGEST EVER BUILT

London, Saturday.
The new State Airship R.101—the largest ever built—is safely moored to her mast at Cardington, Bedfordshire. Work will be immediately begun in connection with the two days' test at the mast head, after which she will begin a series of short flights preparatory to a flight to Karachi.

SOLDIER SENTENCED

36 DAYS FOR DESERTION CHARGE

L/CPL. A. GLAZIER

L/Cpl. A. Glazier, of the 2nd. Bn. King's Own Scottish Borderers, who was tried by a District Court Martial on Friday morning at Murray Barracks, has the "China Mail" learns, been sentenced to 36 days' imprisonment for deserting his Majesty's Forces.

The prisoner, it will be remembered, was said to have left barracks on September 3 and was not seen again until September 25 when he was arrested in the Seamen's Institute. He was then dressed in civilian clothes.

The sentence originally passed on the prisoner by the Court was 112 days, but the General Officer Commanding remitted half of the sentence.

ANTI-MUI-TSAI

SOCIETY PROPOSES DRASTIC ACTION

COMPULSORY REGISTRATION

Yesterday at the Chinese Y.M.C.A. the Anti-Mui Tsai Society held a meeting and some drastic measures were proposed as the means of defeating the subterfuges employed by mui-tsai owners.

Dr. S. C. Yeung, presided. He said inter alia:

I am heartily glad that this meeting is so well attended and with such enthusiasm evinced on your part, all of which goes to show that you are definitely taking the side of humanity and justice.

At the last annual general meeting, the resolution was passed that all mui tsai in Hong Kong should be registered with the Secretary for Chinese Affairs and it was also passed that the resolution was entrusted to the Executive Committee with a view to its eventual adoption as an ordinance by the Hong Kong Government.

After much deliberation on the part of that committee and with repeated amendments, that resolution was early this year transmitted to the Hong Kong Government through the Secretary for Chinese Affairs, with the result that a reply was obtained from the Secretary for Chinese Affairs to the effect that His Excellency the Governor of Hong Kong, had kindly promised to forward our representation to the Secretary of State for the Colonies for approval before its adoption and promulgation as an ordinance.

Government Sympathetic
On May 6 the Secretary for Chinese Affairs published a proclamation forbidding the buying and selling of mui tsai. All this has shown that the Hong Kong Government is liberal, enlightened and is always ready to sympathise with and espouse the cause of humanity. Though it is very clear that this much-cursed, inhuman mui tsai system finds no countenance in such an enlightened government as the Hong Kong Government, yet the system has not been eradicated from our midst as, the proclamation published by the Secretary for Chinese Affairs in May last cannot be regarded as an effective means of putting an end to the evil.

But when we come to the concrete facts it will be seen that their emancipation is not so very easy a matter after all. We may ask how many oppressed mui-tsais there have been who have effected their emancipation since that proclamation was published. I dare say there have been very few cases. Is it because these mui-tsais do not wish to be set free as independent human beings? Certainly not. Underlying it all, there are the following reasons:

1. The mui-tsais are nearly all illiterate, as most Chinese women have not the advantage of any education. Then how could these uneducated girls be expected to read newspapers, in which there was only one day's publication of a proclamation, that was of such important significance to their life?

2. They are all afraid of the consequences of reporting them-

PIRATES ACTIVE ON WEST RIVER

EFFECT OF THE WAR

BOAT FOR CANTON SUBJECT TO HOT ATTACK

GUARD ON TOW SHOWS FIGHT

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Pakhal, Kongmoon, Yesterday.

Military developments elsewhere have made their effect felt here in the Sze Yap, the rich hinterland of the port of Kongmoon.

With the garrison transferred for active service against the possible invasion of the Ironclads, protection is lacking and the pirates are coming out again after a few months of reluctant inactivity.

Press Gangs
Coolies were rounded up by official press gangs at Kungyick to do transport work for the departing troops and business has, accordingly, been bad because people remain indoors to avoid the press gang.

In the vicinity of Kowkong, a community was attacked late one night by a band of a hundred pirates who carried off twenty persons into captivity, to be ransomed.

Misses a Mine
Then the tow-boat "Wing Fat," which plies between Canton and Kungyick, narrowly missed striking a mine laid in the delta of the West River by pirates who now often adopt this method to cripple native craft. The spot chosen this time was Ho Kau, half way between Pakhal and Canton.

Converging Fire
At the precise moment, pirates on both banks of the river opened fire with machine-guns and rifles on the launch which proceeds apace of supplies the motive power for the big junk (the "tow"). The launch carries armour plate and everything of consequence on the junk is under cover.

Hotly returning the fire, the guards on the tow suffered several casualties before the coxswain took the launch and the junk through the danger zone, manoeuvring skillfully to avoid the contraption laid in the river.

Central Notes
Meanwhile—as an index of the political situation—the nominal value of notes issued by the Central Bank, Canton (the Government repository) has revived to 90 per cent. but nobody accepts paper money in business.

Floral Tributes
A large number of beautiful wreaths and sprays of flowers were sent, among them being the following:—

From Rita (sister), Peggy (brother), Fred (brother), Charles and Frances Heaney, "Gill," Miss H. D. Sawyer, Miss P. Anderson, Mrs. J. B. Doyle, Miss Odell and Mr. L. E. Lammett, Mr. R. Hancock and Miss Hancock.

Po Leung Kuk Dreaded
S. They are all afraid of being committed to the custody of Po Leung Kuk, as it is often heard that mui-tsais, who have submitted their grievances to the Secretary for Chinese Affairs but failed to obtain liberty pending the final decision of that authority, will be committed to the custody of Po Leung Kuk.

All this shows how easily these poor innocent women may be intimidated into preferring to become prostitutes rather than to be entrusted to the custody of Po Leung Kuk. Similarly, the cruel heartless mistress can resort to the same dodge to cover the ignorant, helpless mui-tsai into submission because the latter look upon going into Po Leung Kuk as not so much as a charitable organisation but as a reformatory for women criminals.

1. No mui-tsai will dare to claim liberty until they are ill-treated to such a degree as they can see for themselves that such a miserable life of slavery is no better than death.

2. Owners of mui-tsai will not be able to see that cruelty to these girls is a crime itself and is punishable by law therefore.

3. They are all afraid of the consequences of reporting them-

GIRL GUIDE'S DEATH

BEHEAVEMENT OF LT. COL. & MRS. CHRISTIAN

SUNDAY FUNERAL

With profound regret and sympathy a large circle of friends received the news of the sudden death, from diphtheria, of Miss Dulcie Christian, the 18-year-old daughter of Lt. Colonel W. Christian, D.S.O., commanding officer of the Royal Artillery, a well-known cricketer in local sport.

As "Brown Owl" of the 2nd Hong Kong (Garrison) Browne Pack, Miss Christian won the popularity of her girls. It was whilst paying a visit to Stonecutters' Island on Tuesday that she contracted the sickness, and she died only two days later, being removed to the Hospital just too late.

The deceased lady's father and mother recently left for the North on a tour of inspection, and they are believed to be at present in Peking. Colonel Christian lost one of his sons, who died in 1927, in the wilds of Canada together with two other companions in their adventure.

Yesterday the funeral was held at the Protestant Cemetery, Happy Valley, where the deceased lady's brother, Lieut. Christian, R.A., was chief mourner, and a large gathering attended.

The Rev. C. Scott Little conducted the service, and at the close the Dean of Hong Kong (the Very Rev. A. Swann, M.A., D.S.C.) offered prayers of comfort, after an address in which he referred to the profound sorrow caused by the death.

Those attending included the Right Rev. C. R. Duppuy, D.D. (Bishop of Victoria), the Rev. H. V. Koop, M.A., Lieut.-Col. Robinson, Major Hewson, Major Carver, Major Morrison, R.A.M.C., Capt. ## FOOTBALL fast, and good football was marred by the ground being very slippery.

The teams lined out as under:—
Recreio:—Marques; Lawrence and Oliveira; Silva, A. Xavier, and Figueiredo; Bernardo, Gozans, Gonzalves, J. Santos, and F. Santos.

St. Joseph's:—Omar; Harvey and Lezama; Delgado, K. M. Omar, and McGran; Li La-bhan, Gutierrez, Castilho, Haroon and Wei Lan-tong.

Referee: Mr. Lamb.

An Early Effort
Facing a slight breeze Recreio tried to get an early goal but the prowess of Omar kept them at bay for 15 minutes during which time he was tested on at least a dozen occasions. Eventually J. Santos scored a nice low shot which Omar misjudged. Play continued to be very quick with both forward lines having shots at goal and proving very feeble, with no further score until half time.

Half Time:—
Recreio ..... 1
St. Joseph's ..... 0.

The Aggressive
Resuming, Recreio were on the aggressive and Santos brother's were constantly worrying the defence and only a few minutes after the start J. Santos scored from an offside position when his brother could very well have scored had he not passed the ball, having only the goal to beat.
Haroon was the next to get a really good shot which Marques saved in fine style.

Shortly afterwards Omar ran out to intercept a dangerous ball and in the melee that followed J. Santos once more netted. Just before the whistle Castilho beat Marques with a low drive which gave him no chance, and so the Recreio emerged the victors.

Result:—
St. Joseph's ..... 1

SOUTH CHINA v. EWO

This game was played at Caroline Hill before a fair number of spectators. A moderate breeze was blowing down the ground, and the home side, who won the toss, elected to play with the wind at their backs.

The teams were as under:—
South China:—Wong Ki-leung; Lan Kan, Sze-To Ho; Lan Kwok-ku, Sin Ping-sheung, Fung Man-kit; Tseng King-ki, Ip Koon-ning, Tam Kwong-pak, Cheng Chit-ming, Ip Yau-sun.
Ewo:—Li Poo-tuen; Lum Ho-yang, Cheung Chun-yang; Chan Muk-shing, Cheng Kam-tong, To Ho-ching; Ho Yum-tim, Chan Yiu-wing, Chan Shek-tung, Wan Kam-pui, Fung King-yu.

A Neat Header
After a few minutes' play, in which there was little to choose between the teams, Cheng Chit-ming placed a neat header in the net to give South China the lead. Shortly afterwards, Chan Shek-tung equalised.

There was a number of fouls given for dangerous kicking, and no further score occurred before half time.

Shortly after resuming, Tam Kwong-pak scored for South China from a penalty, and shortly before the final whistle, Cheng Chit-ming scored again.

Score:—
South China ..... 3
Ewo ..... 1

Starving The Wings
The centre-half on each side played a good game, but Ewo were inclined to starve their right wing. The South China side were definitely the better team, and, in the closing stages the ball was rarely in their half of the field, and then only through sporadic raids, mostly the solo efforts of Chan Yiu-wing.

CLUB v. SOMERSETS

This game was postponed until 4.30 p.m., in order to allow of the K.O.S.B. using the Club ground for their match with Chinese "B".
The Somerset's had a comparatively easy task in disposing of their hosts and won handsomely by five goals to nil.

Very few of the Club players were seen to advantage, their aggressive work being ragged in the extreme. The defence, however, put up a stolid resistance until the interval and the only goal conceded came from Denmead, who headed past Fogwill.

The home defence cracked up soon after the resumption and the visitors piled up a further score of four goals.

Guest was responsible for the first points, and Earley (2) and Denman completed the scoring in a game which was too one-sided to be of much interest to spectators.

Result:—
Club ..... 0

K.O.S.B. v. CHINESE "B"

The venue for this match was changed at the last minute and the Club Ground was the scene of a meritorious win for the Bordereers.

The Chinese team took an early lead through Leung Tat-wing, but after this the Bordereers assumed command of the game and did pretty much as they pleased.

Craig got through to put them on level terms before the interval.

The second half saw the soldiers attacking solidly against an excellent defence, and success came their way when Martin found the net with a long shot.

The Chinese custodian appeared to be somewhat dazzled by the sun, for he made no attempt to save. Cook scored the final goal shortly before the close of a well contested game.

Result:—
K.O.S.B. ..... 3
Chinese "B" ..... 1

R.A. v. NAVY

Played on the Sookumpoo ground before the big fixture, Navy were good value for their win, their forwards playing with far more understanding and penetrative power than was the case with their opponents.

Goodridge scored the first point for the Navy, and followed up his success by again finding the target before the interval.

The Gunners had rather more of the play after the change of ends, but could make little headway against a sound defence.

Sorbie increased the Navy's total to three with a smart effort.

Result:—
R.A. ..... 0
Navy ..... 3

R.A.M.C. v. S. CHINA "B"

Although dropping both points, the Medicals were by far the better team for the greater part of this game, but faulty forward work was their undoing.

South China scored on the few occasions in which they penetrated the R.A.M.C. defence, while at the other end a continuous bombardment of the South China goal failed to bring the necessary score.

The teams were:—
R.A.M.C.:—McGowan, Edwards, Dodson, McAusland, Joyce, Thomas, Elliott, Jenkins, Smith, Tuson and Goodman.

South China "B":—Tam Tai-sing; Chan Hay-sit, Lau Kwok-yuk; Leung Yui-chun, Wong Mee-shun, Chung Kwok-choi; Cheung Ching-tak, Yeung Kan-po, Tang Yung-shing, Shak Tak-on, Lai Kwong-jai.

A Fine Effort
South China scored in the first minute, a misunderstanding in the Medical defence letting in Shak Tak-on.

A further point followed when Lai Kwong-jai netted with a fine first time effort.

The Medicals retaliated in no uncertain manner and drew level before the interval, Smith being the scorer on both occasions, the first as the result of a penalty.

The second half was chiefly in favour of R.A.M.C. who did everything but score. South China obtained the winning point as the result of a break-away, Lai Kwong-jai scoring a fine goal of the crossbar.

McGowan played a fine game in goal for the Medicals, and Dodson and Smith were other players to impress.

Result:—
R.A.M.C. ..... 2
South China "B" ..... 3

'VARSITY' v. KOWLOON

A keen match at Happy Valley resulted in a well-deserved win for Kowloon. Although claiming the points by a narrow margin the victors had definitely the better of matters and were full value for their success. The teams lined out as under:—
University:—F. S. Chen; C. M. Lee, S. P. Loh; A. Reed, S. L. Wong, K. Lew; L. Oppenheim, S. H. Ling, P. Kho, H. L. Lee and H. Noronha.

Kowloon:—Angus; Harman, Hast; Seddon, Campbell, Hawke; Moore, Sperry, Moss, Coates and Bickford.

An Early Reverse

Kowloon suffered an early reverse when P. Kho got through for University ten minutes after the commencement, but the latter were unable to hold their lead for long, Sperry obtaining a clever equaliser.

University showed distinct promise in some of their movements and were several times within an ace of adding to their score, but Angus acquitted himself well in the Kowloon goal, while Hast also played a sterling game.

The interval arrived with the scores level but Kowloon quickly jumped into the lead on resuming, Sperry heading in from an accurate centre by Bickford.

A further point was added by Seddon before University scored their final goal.

This was the outcome of a penalty, H. L. Lee being the marksman with a shot which gave Angus no chance.

Result:—
University ..... 2
Kowloon ..... 3

CATHOLIC BAZAAR

FAIRYLAND APPEARANCE AT CONVENT SITE

OPENED BY MRS. KOTEWALL

The sixth annual Bazaar of the Precious Blood Convent, held under the distinguished patronage of Lady Clementi, was formally opened by Mrs. R. H. Kotewall, at 3 p.m., on Saturday, at the Wah Yan College, Robinson-road, in the presence of a large gathering which included His Lordship Bishop H. Valtorta, D.D., who was accompanied by several priests of the Italian Mission.

Fairly Lights

The grounds of the College presented a very gay appearance with flags and strings of electric bulbs which, when lit in the evening, gave the place a fairy-land appearance, which was much admired.

The fête was thronged from the opening until 10 p.m. when it was closed to resume yesterday from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Proceedings were enlivened by the St. Louis Band who played some fine music.

Mrs. Kotewall arrived just before 3 p.m., on Saturday and was received by Mr. Lim Hoi-lan, Chairman, and members of the Committee. The band played a selection, after which the opening ceremony was performed.

Aged And Poor

Addressing the gathering, Mr. Lim said that it gave him much pleasure to welcome Mrs. Kotewall and all the visitors to the sixth annual Bazaar of the Sisters of the Precious Blood Convent. The Convent, he said, is situated at Sham-shui-po, where the good Sisters have in their care many of the aged and poor of the Colony.

The Sisters of the Precious Blood have no income other than the generous donations of the charitable inclined, augmented by the proceeds of their annual Bazaar.

The Hon. Secretary, Hon. Treasurer and members of the Committee have worked very hard to make the Bazaar which they were about to open a success, but he was afraid that it would not be a success unless those present undid their purse strings and gave as much they could towards the good cause.

They would get pretty and useful souvenirs in return. He also appealed to the gathering to ask their friends who did not attend on Saturday to do so the next day, "and do likewise." Mr. Lim then asked Mrs. Kotewall to open the Bazaar.

Before doing so, Mrs. Kotewall said:—
The presence of my husband being required at another function at this moment, I am forced to say a few words myself.

It is a great pleasure to me to open the Bazaar, and that pleasure is the greater because on previous occasions Lady Clementi and Mrs. Southern performed the same function, and also because the Precious Blood Convent has been doing splendid work in behalf of the poor.

I am asked by the Sisters of the Convent to express their thanks to Lady Clementi for having graciously given her consent to be the Patron of the Bazaar and for a handsome donation; and to the Hon. Mr. A. C. Hynes, Mr. Fung Ping-shan and many other ladies and gentlemen and local firms and companies for donations and gift of articles.

The Sisters are also indebted to the Headmaster of the Wah Yan College for the courtesy in placing their playground and hall at their disposal for the bazaar; and to the College students for their very welcome assistance in disposing of a large number of tickets.

The total donations received this year exceed those of last year, and so the poor in the care of the Precious Blood Convent will benefit in proportion.

I hope that the result of the Bazaar will prove to be equally successful. I have now much pleasure in declaring the Bazaar open.

Mrs. Kotewall then declared the Bazaar open by undoing the bow of a ribbon tied round the neck of a glass jar, containing lottery tickets.

The Stallholders
The following well-laden and prettily arranged stalls were erected on the grounds:—Foul Play, Mah-jong, Ping-pong Throw, Flaming Pond, Into the Monocle, White Mouse Don, Hitting Squares, The Delphi of Apollo, Hoop-la, Weight

Judging, Hidden Treasure and Tencent Raffle. At all these stalls luck, of course, played a part, but some of the prizes were so attractive that they were worth while trying for.

The most interesting stall was the "Delphi of Apollo" where a few beautiful little birds, cleverly trained, drew oracles at command. Each oracle bore a number corresponding with a prize, there were no blanks. All the prizes represented value for money, whilst a few were valuable and most desirable.

Assistance at the various stalls was rendered by girl and boy students of the various local schools. The following officials responsible for the organisation of the Bazaar are to be congratulated for the excellent arrangements made and the result of the Bazaar should be gratifying.

HONG KONG TIDE

The tide-table given below has been obtained by aid of the Tide-predicting Machine, which includes 40 components for the better prediction of the tides, from the result of the analysis of the tidal observations taken at the Kowloon tidal observatory under the direction of Dr. Dobereck during the years 1887, 1888 and 1889.

The times and heights are given for Kowloon, but they may be used for the Victoria Naval Yard and Aberdeen, the differences being very small.

The times of high and low-water must not be considered to coincide with the times of slack-water and change of current, the two phenomena being quite distinct.

WAR CREDIT

Mr. Henderson's statement, made at Geneva, that the British Government is disposed to sign the Convention designed to give financial help to a State attacked, or threatened to be attacked, by an aggressor has raised the first controversy the Government has experienced in its foreign policy. Those who appointed Mr. Snowden's conduct in The Hague negotiations and Mr. MacDonald's conduct in the naval negotiations are puzzled by some of the implications of Mr. Henderson's latest statement at Geneva. It seems clear that if any intention is entertained by the British Government of reviving the so-called Geneva Protocol, a rock will emerge on which the Government is likely to split.

There are three main difficulties about the financial convention, which have always been regarded as insuperable by precisely that school of thought in British foreign policy with which the present Government is most closely identified.

There is, in the first place, the purely financial difficulty that the Convention imposes on Great Britain precisely that type of burden which Mr. Snowden at The Hague has so recently been at pains to reject. By the Convention Great Britain would undertake to provide larger war credits than any other signatory, and the British Empire as a whole would be called on to provide more than twice as much in money as all the other guarantors put together.

Such a convention is an essential part of the Continental machinery, which is a matter of course, that the British taxpayer will pay the war-costs of other nations, but in this case there is the further elaboration of that principle that the total amount payable would be fixed by a bare majority vote of the League Council. The British vote might be in a minority, and yet the British share of the amount voted would be the largest, because the British contribution to the League Budget is the largest. A financial liability of such a kind would violate the constitutional principle of Parliamentary control over national expenditure.

In the second place there is the consideration that the Convention would run a real danger of defeating its object. A State involved in a dispute would be less likely to present a pacific front if there was a chance of its proving aggression by the other party, and thereby having its war expenses paid by other countries, especially by Great Britain.

The danger would not end there. Certain of the smaller States which could reasonably count on Geneva's support, might be stiffened in their resistance to the adjustment of injustices resulting from the Treaty of Versailles.

The third difficulty is that by the operation of the Convention Britain might be involved in the crowning irony of financing a war in which she had no interest, and even of financing an enemy of her own in an actual war against herself. No doubt even a British Government would consider the advisability of repudiating its own undertaking in the last-mentioned contingency, and in many other strange contingencies that might be produced by the Convention; but the practical question now is why the British Government should contemplate the signature of an instrument so highly controversial, and so difficult to reconcile with the Government's own policy?

ROUND THE CINEMAS

"COHENS & KELLYS IN PARIS"
AT MAJESTIC

FAST-MOVING COMEDY

J. Farrell MacDonald and George Sidney score a huge success in their latest comedy hit "The Cohens and Kellys in Paris," which is being screened at the Majestic Theatre for the last time to-day.

The two have been seen together in other successes and they made a perfect pair. In this picture they keep the audience in roars of laughter, and not until the final close-up does the interest flag.

Sue Carol and Jack Dealney enact the part of Cohen's daughter and Kelly's, son respectively, while Vera Gordon and Gertrude Astor play as the wives of the Jew and Irish comedians.

"EXCESS BAGGAGE"

William Haines' Remarkable Role in New Film

A graphic picture of the life every minor vaudeville player knows so well is contained in "Excess Baggage," John McGowan's play of vaudeville life, in which William Haines plays to-day and to-morrow at the afternoon performances of the Star Theatre.

It is a story of the stage with its brief joys, its bitter disappointments, and its old customs. Its comedy is tempered with heart throbs in an intensely human document.

Josephine Dunn plays the wife, and Ricardo Cortez, Kathleen Clifford, Gerie Granich, Neddy Edwards and Tom Dugan's cast among the rest. "Excess Baggage," according to a film critic, is screen entertainment of the highest order and presents William Haines in a totally unexpected role.

WEDDING BELLS

POPULAR SOCIAL FUNCTION
AT PAK HOK TUNG

PAGET-WEYNER

Canton.
A popular social event took place here on Wednesday in the marriage of Miss Dorothy Mead Paget, daughter of Mrs. D. M. Paget of Pak Hok Tung, and Mr. Ludwig Werner of Messrs. R. Johnson & Co.

The religious ceremony took place in the residence of Mrs. Paget down at Pak Hok Tung and it was a very charming and impressive affair, with half-a-dozen little girls, prettily dressed holding a piece of white ribbon to serve as the aisle, up which the bride walked to the minister on the arm of Mr. W. Gilman, who gave her away in the absence of her father.

The bride was dressed in satin and lace, with a long lace and tulle veil, with four bridesmaids in pale blue and pink to hold it out.

There was a great company of guests assembled, most of the residents of Shamshu, Tungshan and Pak Hok Tung having attended.

An Amusing Incident

There was an amusing incident when the bride cut the cake and found it impossible to do so. Mrs. Paget was in consternation, wondering if it had gone suddenly stale and the bride was blushing more and more delightedly as she found her efforts unrewarded, albeit becoming a little panicky too. The bridegroom put his hand to his first stroke of domesticity but was no more successful. Then it was discovered that, in removing the top layer of the cake, the tin that protected the lower layer, and was tied over, had not been removed and it was through this armour-plating that they had been trying to cut.

The wedding presents were very numerous and handsome. Mrs. Werner was very popular here during the two years since the "came out" and both she and her husband are well-known as very excellent swimmers, the latter being one of the successful members of the German "Lehmann Cup" team which won that cup this summer.

CORRESPONDENCE

HUMANE SLAUGHTER

(To the Editor of the "China Mail.")
Sir,—With reference to the appeal of the S. P. C. A., apart from apathy unfortunately only too common with regard to the work in general of this most meritorious institution, there is, in Hong Kong, I fear, a particular apathy caused by the feeling of lack of proportion in the aims, objects and methods of the Society.

Surely, the greatest of all cruelty occurs in the slaughtering of animals for food. Life is not extinguished by violent means, in large sentient creatures with highly organised nervous systems, without their suffering intense agony, compared to which the pain caused by carrying fowls by their wings (the muscles of which are abnormally developed) is less than infinitesimal. Have we not here, magnified, an example of our penny-farthing attitude towards realities, an illustration of Hong Kong's lack of a sense of proportion?

I cannot personally vouch for the truth of the matter, but I have been informed by an eye-witness that in our slaughter houses some scores of large animals and thousands of smaller ones are slaughtered nightly, without any attempt at modern methods for the alleviation of suffering, such as those employed in model abattoirs at home, as, for example, at Letchworth.

To a person of refinement and feeling, it is surely a dreadful thought, painful beyond all bearing, that every evening as, at home, he sits in the enjoyment of domestic felicity, or abroad, partakes, in the pleasures of the dance, the concert, or the cinema—aye, and in the consolations of the Church service or the prayer-meeting, thousands of large animals are having their skulls crashed in, what time they writhe on their knees groaning, moaning and shrieking their lives away in the agonising throes of a violent death-struggle.

The cruelty involved in slaughtering is so great, intensely and extensively, that, to me, Humane Slaughter (apart from the alleviation of human suffering) seems to be the acme of all reform.

Till Letchworth practice is of universal adoption, songs of lands "green and pleasant" and of things bright and beautiful are but empty, empty and empty but hypocritical creeds and religions but blasphemy.

"AT HOME"

K.C.C. CELEBRATES MIXED
DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

"THE REST" BEATEN

An "at home" was held yesterday at the Kowloon Cricket Club in celebration of the winning of the League Mixed Doubles, when an interesting game was played between K.C.C. and "The Rest."

At the conclusion of the play, Mr. E. Abraham, the Vice-President of the Club, introduced Miss Hancock, who kindly presented the shield, and then called upon Mr. H. E. B. Hancock, the President of the Hong Kong Lawn Tennis Association, to make a few remarks.

Miss Hancock presented the Dunlop Shield to Mr. E. C. Fincher, the Captain of the Kowloon C.C. team, and also spoke to the members of "The Rest" team.

The results of the games were as follows:—
Mrs. Sayer and E. C. Fincher (Champions) beat Miss Enid Lo and M. K. Lo (Chinese R.C.) 8-6; beat Mrs. Parsons and G. W. Sewell (Ladies' R.C.) 6-2; beat Mrs. Purlois and C. Stewart (Kowloon Bowling Green) 6-0.

CHINA'S NEW WAR

EFFECT OF KUOMINCHUN'S
DEFIANCE

ALLIANCE AGAINST CHIANG

Shanghai, Saturday.
In view of the Kuominchun generals' rebellion against the Central Government, Tan Yen-kai, Hu Han-min, Tai Chi-fao, Wang Chung-hui, and Chao Tai-wei have sent a joint telegram to Yen Hsi-shan, urging him to mobilise troops and subjugate the rebels in the north.—Reuter.

Minister's Flight

Peking, Saturday.
Sources connected with the Kuominchun, those units of the Nationalist Army under the "Christian General," General Yu Hsiang, declare that General Lu Chung-lin, Feng Yu-hsiang's right hand man, and Minister of War in Nanking until his flight just before his dismissal on October 10, is due to arrive by sea at Tientsin, in Chihli Province, tomorrow. It is added that he expects to travel safely through North China to the Kuominchun, which is in the north-west.

This is taken as an indication of General Yen Hsi-shan's attitude because, without his permission, Lu Chung-lin could not travel safely through his domains to join the "rebel" Christian General.

Yen Hsi-shan returned yesterday to Taiyuanfu from a mountain resort where he and the Christian General had been staying.

To Investigate

Last night, General Ho Cheng-chun, a supporter of Chiang Kai-shek, hurriedly left Peking for Taiyuanfu, stating that he is going to inquire as to Yen Hsi-shan's health, but it is understood that he is under instructions from Chiang Kai-shek to find out precisely how Yen Hsi-shan stands with Feng Yu-hsiang in the present crisis.

Advices from Shansi, in Yen Hsi-shan's province, indicate that Yen Hsi-shan's is very unlikely to declare outright for Chiang Kai-shek and that, at most, he will only declare neutrality.—Reuter.

Troops Advance Eastward

Shanghai, Saturday.
According to reliable reports, 40,000 of the Kuominchun troops under Generals Sun Tien-ying and Yang Fu-sang are advancing eastward from Honan province to Tso-chow with the object of linking up with General Chen Tiao-yuan, Chairman of the Shantung Provincial Government, who appears to have thrown in his lot against Chiang Kai-shek.

Other units in the Kuominchun are advancing from Loyang, in Honan, southwards, with Hankow as their ultimate goal. They are moving along two routes (1) by the Peking-Hankow Railway to enter Hupeh and (2) from Loehokow, in the north-west of Hupeh, down the Han River, a tributary of the Yangtze, also to Hankow.

Generals Wavering

It appears that a number of Generals in Hupeh, Anhui, and elsewhere are wavering in their allegiance towards Chiang Kai-shek and, at least, will not act vigorously against the "rebels."

For example, there is General Tang Seng-chi with his divisions at Chengchow (in Honan, at the junction of the Peking-Hankow and Lung-Hai lines); it is believed likely that he will be neutral or for the Kuominchun.

Ironside's Plans

The Ironsides are believed to have reached Kwelin, in the north-east of Kwangsi Province, and ready to advance against Kwangtung.

The first objectives are Lingshan and Linchow (in the extreme south-west of Kwangtung) while the column of the National Government is at present on the defensive at Wuchow, unable to advance owing to the activity of "rebel" warships on the West River.

(If the Ironsides make for Linchow, they will have to march south through Kwangsi, to the west of and "avoiding" Wuchow.)

Doubtful Attitude

The attitude of Yen Hsi-shan (via the National Government) is believed in Shanghai to be doubtful.—Reuter.

Effect on Hong Kong

A number of Nam Pak Hong firms in Hong Kong have received cable requests from connections in North and Central China to suspend all shipments of merchandise, "because the outbreak of war is feared."

Kuominchun Circular

Peking, Yesterday.
The Tientsin "Ta Kung Po," in a message from Taiyuan, prints the text of a Kuominchun circular telegram of October 10.

The telegram is divided into six articles. The first declares that through the blunders of Chiang Kai-shek the affairs of the country are being brought to ruin. The National Revolutionary Government (the message proceeds) has been under the control of the Kuomintang, whereas it should have been representative of all sections of the people. Charges are laid against Chiang Kai-shek of monopolising the Third National Congress and proceeding to divide the country among his friends.

"HIGH LIGHTS"

PACKED HOUSES AT THE
STAR THEATRE

WARWICK REVUE COMPANY

On Saturday night and last night the Warwick Company presented a new programme entitled "High Lights" to packed houses which appreciated to the full this bright and amusing show.

The whole programme was so excellent that it is hard to single out individual members. Special mention must be made, however, of the dances and fantasies arranged and devised by Guy Latham, who sang and danced delightfully with his pretty partner, Barbara Wanda.

An Apache scene given to the haunting "Valse Triste" of Sibeli had a gruesome and unexpected end! "Odeur" was both quaint and clever and won tremendous applause though it was hard to believe the frightful "charlady" was the same person as the dainty and lissom dancer in "Under the Moon"—a tune which will probably be whistled all over Kowloon for many a day.

Grace and Humour

Quite the best skit of the evening was the sketch, "What Every Woman Wants to Know," in which the whole company took part. The Russian scene by Rex Burchell and Gladys Volle causing boundless mirth.

Enid Nicolson "brought the house down" with some old Scotch songs (among others a fascinating version of "Comin' Thro' the Rye") which she sang with much grace and humour and Robert Poole revealed a mellow baritone in his scene, "The Watchman."

Selwyn Driver is well known and popular with English audiences all over the world, and he and Rex Burchell kept the audience in a good humour all evening—the latter with his golf-bag props that a "strad" is not the only kind of violin!

Altogether "High Lights" is one of the best shows we have had here for a very long time.

To-day the Company presents a fresh programme entitled "The Merry-Go-Round."

trailing the administrative power.

Bribery & Corruption

Dr. Sun Yat-sen said that the State belongs to the people, but Chiang Kai-shek's policy has been one of "private ownership of the State."

Secondly, the Government is accused of bribery and corruption in connection with political appointments. Chiang Kai-shek is charged with appointing friends or relatives to the most important posts. The Nanking Government has been more corrupt than the former Peking Government.

Thirdly, the Government has looked with equanimity on 20 million people starving in the north-west, through famine, while Chiang Kai-shek, since assuming political power, has floated loans for $400,000,000, which the country does not know how the money has been spent.

The fourth complaint is that Chiang Kai-shek fought for the extinction of many military leaders who performed meritorious service for the revolution, causing bloodshed in several provinces.

Failure in Crisis

Fifthly, Chiang Kai-shek's demobilisation scheme was false in that he sought to reduce the armies of all other leaders, while retaining and increasing his own.

Lastly, Chiang Kai-shek is charged with failure on the Chinese Eastern Railway crisis. His negotiations failed, it is stated, and he then neglected to take the only course open—to declare war on Russia. Instead, he has done nothing, allowing the Russians to pillage and burn Chinese towns.

The message concludes with a request to Yen Hsi-shan and Feng Yu-hsiang to come to the fore to assume responsibility for the nation's salvation, adding that the signatories are leading 400,000 men to Nanking for the purpose of killing a traitor for the sake of the country.—Reuter.

Situation Worsens

Peking, Yesterday.

In view of the worsening military situation, train services on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway between Tientsin and Suchow have been suspended by the authorities concerned since last night.—Reuter.

Naval Intelligence

Shanghai, Yesterday.

There are rumours current to the effect that a declaration of war has been taken place by the combination of Feng Yu-hsiang, Yen Hsi-shan, Chang Fa-kuei, and the Kuomintang forces against Nanking.

As a great deal of propaganda is being put out by the "Third National Congress" Party, it is likely that matters are somewhat exaggerated.

ANTI-MUI TSAI

they are liable to continue committing the crime nonchalantly.

3. In order to escape the consequences of the breach of this law, they are apt to sell the multi-tai for prostitution.

4. The crafty owners will destroy the deeds or bonds, specifying their legal possession of the multi-tai, so that they can still possess these girls as adopted daughters instead of slave girls.

It is heard that multi-tai will change hands without being legalised by possession deeds so as to escape legal consequences.

5. The only requirement being an advertisement in newspapers specifying the purchase of such and such girls as adopted daughters.

Should this be true, then this vicious system would have developed a new phase that is worth our attention.

Registration Advantages

5. Failing the enforcement of registration, the actual number of multi-tai in the Colony is unavailable and statistical records of their increase or decrease are also impossible.

6. There is no time limit fixed for the complete emancipation of multi-tai.

7. Should the owners of multi-tai abide by this proclamation to set them all free, then the authorities would be at a loss to dispose of all these girls as some of them might find no parents to return to, some might have been kidnapped from the interior and changed hands more than once, some might have been left by old masters to the young ones, some might have been bought from parents who could no longer be traced or located, while some might still be too young to lead an independent life as maid servants.

All these cases of such an intricate nature and origin can easily be dealt with by an Ordinance of Registration.

Mui Tsai and Adopted Daughters

The points raised by the Chairman and English Secretary in their speeches were put to the meeting for discussion. With regard to the Government view that enforcement of registration was difficult to the point of being impossible, owing to the difficulty of discovering the exact status of the girl in the household, that was to say, of differentiating between an adopted daughter and a multi-tai, without the willing co-operation of the master or mistress, it was stated at the meeting that the same argument could apply to smuggling, theft or any other form of crime.

In the form in which they had been drawn up by the Committee, it was suggested that the proposed regulations for such registration which were sent to the authorities some months ago, might form an effective basis upon which to proceed.

The mui tsai system having been abolished by Government proclamation, it was desirable, stated a member, to emphasise the inclusion of the registration of adopted daughters in the scheme of things, as it was pointed out that a well-known subterfuge of owners was to say that the girl was an adopted daughter when, for all they knew to the contrary, the girl might be a multi-tai. The difficulties besetting the investigator in this connection were fully appreciated.

To Act Without Canton

The argument that Hong Kong could do nothing without drastic measures being first taken by the Canton authorities was characterised as an idle one, for it was pointed out that Hong Kong could act independently with the means at its disposal. For a start it had, however, established a Social Welfare Bureau which was doing a great deal of useful work. There was close harmony between the aims of both this Bureau and the Anti-Mui Tsai Society, and efforts were being made, it was stated, to bring the two organisations into closer relations.

The meeting then proceeded to elect the officers and members of the Committee.

Thirty names were proposed and duly elected for the new Committee. The election of the various office holders will be carried out at a later meeting.

LESSON-SERMON

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST HONG KONG

"Are sin, disease, and death real?" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 13.

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "The Lord is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works. All thy works shall praise thee: O Lord, and thy saints shall bless thee. The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works." (Ps. 145:9, 10, 11).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science text-book "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "His sickness, and death, must be deemed as devised of reality as they are of good." (p. 122).

ROBBERY SEQUEL

THEFT OF CLOTHING FROM CHINESE HOUSE
SENTENCED TO PRISON

A robbery which occurred on Oct. 5, had a sequel at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday morning, when two Chinese were charged with the theft of 11 pieces of clothing and money to the total of $69, the property of a Chinese pawnbroker and a married woman residing at 51, Nam Cheung-street.

In his prosecution on behalf of the Police, Detective Sergeant Meadows said that a Chinese detective Sergeant went to the Shams shulpa Ferry Wharf, where he saw the two defendants, who were carrying some clothing under their arms. Questioned by the detective, they admitted that they had stolen it. They had entered the house by a back window.

Later the Police raided the house and there found two pawn tickets, which related to the stolen property.

The first defendant, continued the officer, was believed to be a receiver of stolen property and kept his house as an opium den.

His Worship, on reading out the second defendant's record, made mention of two previous convictions for stealing, for which he got six weeks in 1928 and 14 days in 1929, and sentenced him to six months' hard labour.

The first defendant who did not have any previous convictions was fined $50, with the alternative of one month's jail.

The property that was pawned for a reasonable price was ordered to be restored to the complainants on payment of redemption money to the pawnbrokers.

BAG SNATCHING

EUROPEAN LADY ROBBED IN CENTRAL MARKET

THE POLICE VIGILANT

Yet another European lady had her bag snatched from her on Saturday in the Central Market. The Police, however, have arrested a suspected youth and further developments are confidently expected as clues have been obtained which will lead to the gang being broken up.

Mrs. Stewart of Stanley-terrace, Quarry Bay, was shopping in the Central Market about 11 a.m. on Saturday when a Chinese boy of about 15, grabbed and made off with her handbag, containing $9 in notes and a rolled gold cigarette case.

Another Robbery

On Friday, Mrs. Dickson of No. 62, Kennedy-road, was similarly robbed as she was walking down the market steps to Dea Vaux-road Central.

Detectives have been busy and the arrest is in connection with the earlier of the two offences.

Two other ladies lost their handbags similarly on consecutive days some weeks ago and the Police have maintained extra vigilance since. In Snick-street (near "Paddy's" Market) last night, however, a Chinese child was robbed of a rattan bangle mounted with gold.

VACCINATION

ST. JOHN AMBULANCE BRIGADE
CAMPAIGN

At the request of the Medical Department, the members of the St. John Ambulance Brigade have arranged to commence, early next week, a street Vaccination Campaign, on lines similar to that of last year.

No charges whatsoever are made, the whole work being entirely voluntary.

Supplies are drawn from the Government Medical and Bacteriological Departments.

Employers of labour and Heads of Schools are informed that vaccination will be carried out to suit their convenience, on their premises, if application is made to the Brigade District Superintendent. Householders are requested to record their servants' facilities to be vaccinated at an early date.

SANITARY BOARD

MOTIONS TO BE PUT AT NEXT MEETING

ADVISORY BOARD

At the next meeting of the Hong Kong Sanitary Board, to be held to-morrow at 4.15 p.m., The Honourable Mr. J. P. Braga, pursuant to notice, will ask:— "Is it the intention of the Government that the money voted by Legislative Council for the erection of a market at Kowloon Tong in 1929 shall lapse if it is found impossible to proceed with the work this year, or will it be re-voted in 1930?"

Mr. M. K. Lo, pursuant to notice, will ask:— "With reference to the remarks made on the subject of a proposed Advisory Health Board in the recent Budget Debate in the Legislative Council, as reported in the newspapers, will the Head of the Sanitary Department inform the Board:—

(i) Whether he has received any official information from the Government in regard to this matter, and if so, whether he will make a statement to this Board?

(ii) Whether it is the intention of the Government to abridge by legislation the executive powers and functions of the Sanitary Board, as set forth in Part II, of the Public Health and Buildings Ordinance, No. 1 of 1903?

(iii) Whether it is intended by the Government that the proposed Advisory Board is to function independently of the Sanitary Board, and in any case whether it will tender advice only upon subjects which are not within the scope of that Ordinance?

(iv) In view of the fact that this matter gravely affects the question of public health of the Colony and therefore vitally concerns this Board, will he make the necessary representations to the Government that this Board be given due opportunity for expressing its views on any proposed legislative changes affecting the public health of the Colony?"

Mr. M. K. Lo, pursuant to notice, will move:—

"That this Board desires to put on record an expression of its appreciation of the valuable services rendered, and the ability, energy and zeal displayed, by Dr. H. A. Fawcett whilst acting as Medical Officer of Health."

POLICE SHIRTS

MAGISTRATE SUGGESTS THEY ARE NOT STRONG

OBSTRUCTION CASE FAILS

The case in which four Chinese were charged with wilfully obstructing Indian Police Constable B002 Mohammed Hussain, of the Kowloon City Police Station was withdrawn at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday.

Mr. L. H. C. Calthrop, Assistant Superintendent of Police, Kowloon, for the prosecution, informed his Worship that owing to some occurrences during the first hearing and the present one, he had consulted Mr. J. M. d'Almada Remedios, for the defence, who agreed to withdraw the case against his clients and the counter-summmons against the police constable for assault on the first defendant.

His Worship said that he was glad to dismiss the defendants, because this was the third case of assaulting an Indian Constable that had come up before him. Each time the constable's only evidence was that of showing and producing in Court a torn shirt or a shirt with a button missing, or something of that sort. Perhaps the material with which the khaki shirts of the policemen were made of was not strong, added his Worship, as he discharged the defendants.

Mr. Calthrop intimated that the constable would be dealt with departmentally.

OPIUM TRAFFIC

CHINESE SURPRISED IN LOFT
AT HIS PIPE

That the cockpit was an opium den was the remark made by Revenue Officer N. J. Young at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday, when two Chinese were charged before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith with having in their possession 10 taels of raw opium on the ground floor of 182, Canton-road.

First defendant pleaded guilty, while the second entered a plea of not guilty.

Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith told his Worship that the place was a rattan shop and that in the cockpit above he found the first defendant smoking the opium on a bed, while the second was just near on hand.

His Worship accordingly discharged the second defendant on the Officer accepting the plea, and fined the first defendant $300 with the option of one month's hard labour.

The opium was ordered to be confiscated.

KIDNAPPING

KOWLOON CASE REMANDED
FOR A WEEK

"CHILD TRADING"

That the complainants had not returned after 12 days and that he concluded by that fact that they would never return, was the remark made by Sub-Inspector F. T. James at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday noon, when he prosecuted in the remand case in which Ng Tang (38), a native of Sui Nam, is charged with the kidnapping of one Chan Kau (9), from his mother and step-father at 314, Portland-street on Sept. 9.

His Worship intimated that he might discharge the defendant, to which Inspector James replied that the case for the prosecution had been presented to his Worship, and that he had consulted his superior on the matter, but that he left it to his Worship to decide, as to the order of the Court. He would, however, try and get into touch with the magistrate at Sunning District. If the mother of the boy could prove there and then that the father of the boy was dead, her evidence would still hold good.

His Worship said that to him it looked suspicious that the man took the child on the ground that he had gained the authority of both the mother and the step-father. Continuing, his Worship remarked that what was more suspicious was that directly the child was missing, the mother at once went to Macao. He believed that they were all concerned in "child trading," and that it would discredit her evidence.

A further week's remand was granted.

BASEBALL MATCH

KIAORAS TROUNCED BY JAPANESE

HACHIUMA'S HOMER

[By "Bingle"]

The Japanese ball outfit showed their great superiority over the Kiaoras ball crew on Saturday afternoon at Caroline Hill, when they met and defeated them to the tune of 12 runs to 4.

The new-comers entered the baseball circuit this season with a loud blowing of the trumpet, and it only remained for the Nippon lads to put a rift in their lute. At no stage of the game did they look a winner. The Japanese had things pretty much their own way; hitting Lee all over the field.

Batting first, the Japanese got one man home, and successfully held the Kiaoras down to three blank innings. In the second frame, the Japanese notched a quadruple, and at the end of the third stanza, the Kiaoras broke the bad spell, and got three men home after two down.

Nothing daunted, the Nippon lads went in to bat in the sixth frame, and increased their lead by another five runs. The game was thus put on ice and when the Kiaoras secured a single, the Japanese replied with a double in the last inning, one of which was a homer by Hachiuma, over centre field.

On the whole the game was worth watching and the fans who went out in spite of counter attractions were well rewarded.

The line-up and scores follow:—

BABE RUTH IN EMBRYO

Herecullian Tussle Between Philites and S. China

Of all the games seen this season, yesterday's tussle between the Philites and the South China outfit was easily the most spectacular. The Philites crew started out with a bang, and proved themselves exceedingly dangerous to the Chinese. At one stage they looked like running away with the victory, and the Chinese supporters looked glum and sulky.

A Babe Ruth

Zafra proved himself a veritable Babe Ruth in embryo. He had his batting eye with him, and on no less than three occasions, he wallowed out for a homer. This is believed to be a record in Hong Kong, and now he has only to secure another circuit run before winning the cup presented to the one making five home runs or more.

The Chinese players certainly had all the joss going. They made the uphill climb at the last moment, and got there too with sufficient margin to walk away with the game. The play on the whole was most thrilling and fans were kept in suspense up to the last wallop.

The teams lined up as under:—

South China		Philites

A presentation of a cut glass perfume decanter was made to Mrs. Cock by Mr. J. H. Hunt, Captain of the Club.

Mr. E. Cock, President of the Club, said he started to play golf in 1903 and since then had often wondered why he was not a golfer. He had now come to the conclusion that as he had never been able to beat his wife at golf he had decided to give it up.

The Club, he said, was holding its own and had possibilities. He had been very struck by the improvements made to the course, the credit for which went to the members of the various committees who spent a good deal of their time working on behalf of the Club.

The following is the draw for the qualifying round of the Club Championship to be played on Sunday,

October 27. A special prize will be

LONDON PORT

INCREASE IN YEAR'S TONNAGE REVENUE FIGURES

An increase of 2,846,026 in the tonnage entering the port of London was recorded during the year ended last March, compared with the previous year.

The total tonnage arriving and leaving was 55,423,681. Altogether there was an advance of 1,177,781 tons composed of 641,872 tons in the foreign and 535,889 tons in the coastwise trade for which tonnage dues were payable.

In the year the Port of London Authority landed or received 2,079,516 tons of import goods for warehousing of 258,695 tons, or 11.1 per cent. on or for immediate delivery, a decrease the tonnage dealt with the previous year.

The imports and exports, excluding coastwise goods, in London during 1928 were valued at £692,730,143, a decrease of 1.5 per cent. Liverpool was next with £495,396,073, an increase of 0.9 per cent.

On the year's working the Port of London Authority's revenue was £5,846,938, and there was a balance of £1,294,023 interest on stock, and the redemption fund took £1,488,888, leaving a deficit of £194,815.

Covering this there was a balance last year of £301,399, so there was a balance of £396,584.

ATLANTIC AERODROMES

M. Louis Eloriot states that he has, in collaboration with Mr. Armstrong, the American engineer, constructed a machine which he thought would meet all the requirements for a regular trans-Atlantic service. The scheme would embrace a series of floating "islands" placed along the best route at intervals of 310 miles. They had decided upon aeroplanes fitted with wheels and having four engines. In case of a forced landing the wheels would automatically become detached along with the engines, leaving the hull to float until help, which had been wireless for, had arrived.

Raiding an unnumbered house on the Kowloon City-road on a general warrant, Inspector H. Phillips on Friday arrested a Chinese described, as a stone breaker, who was smoking opium on the first floor. On Saturday morning at the Kowloon Magistracy, he pleaded guilty to possession of a small quantity (worth about $4), and was fined $40 or, in default three weeks' imprisonment. Confiscation of the opium was ordered.

"B" the still waters of Babylon." That poetic phrase brings to view a wonderful picture.

Through ancient Babylon, a city built of brick, flowed the river Euphrates. The city was located in the midst of a vast level plain, and for that reason the river moved sluggishly toward the Persian Gulf.

An enormous network of canals and ditches carried the water of the Euphrates out over the land, while during the flood season the surplus was stored in immense reservoirs.

It was a country of still waters,

a veritable garden created by the most wonderful irrigation system

the world has ever known.

Today Babylon is a desert. For its truthfulness it depended wholly upon its system of irrigation long ago destroyed as a result of wars.

While scientific irrigation is still practised in Egypt, much as it was of old, in other parts of the Orient

the desert lands are watered by means extraordinarily primitive and laborious.

Thus in Persia an apparatus called a "tread-wheel" is used to lift water by the bucketful and pour it out upon the thirsty soil. By foot power the operator rotates the wheel (as shown in the photograph), resting his weight in turn upon four cross-roads which connect together the side-pieces of the

HANCOCK'S XI v. OWEN-HUGHES' XI

Mr. Hancock's Team will bat to-day. Mr. H. Owen-Hughes' Team batted in the second Interport Trial game on the H.K.C.C. ground on Saturday against Mr. H. R. B. Hancock's Team. A newcomer to the Club, Major Crane of the K.O.S.B. gave a very creditable performance; even though gifted with luck on one or two occasions, he was finally caught out by Pearce for 62 runs. Capt. J. R. Reynolds mastered the bowling in good style and retired with the highest score to his credit. The bowling and batting was fairly good but the fielding needs more practice generally. ## R.A.O.C. v. H.K.C.C. 2ND XI

The H.K.C.C. proved to be much superior in every way to the R.A.O.C. when the latter entertained the 2nd XI H.K.C.C. at Sookumpoo on Saturday. Wisner of the R.A.O.C. played well against fast bowling, although the fielding might have been better. G. P. ## KOWLOON 2ND XI v. R.E. &amp; S.

Played at Kowloon on Saturday, the R.E. and S. Signals proved much too strong for their opponents. The outstanding individual game, of the afternoon was that of Q.M.S. ## UNIVERSITY v. I.R.C.

Played at Pokfulam on Saturday, the game was evenly contested and interesting. The I.R.C. batted first and A. R. Suffad played brilliantly, he was eventually caught by K. T. Loke after a splendid innings, and the highest score of the game. The University played well with V. T. Loke putting up a good score of 41 runs. He played a good game throughout. ## CRAIGENGOWER v. K.C.C.

An evenly contested game was witnessed on Saturday when the Kowloon C.C. met and defeated the Craigengower C.C. on the latter's ground.

The Craigengower C.C. opened the game very slowly, the first pair being dismissed for moderate scores. S. Abbas, however, changed the conditions somewhat, putting up a score of 52 runs in a comparatively short time. He played a consistent game throughout and the fielding of the Kowloon C.C. was not up to scratch. Kowloon C.C. opened strongly. G. A. V. Hall was, however, well caught out by Lacey for 4 runs. His successor, N. A. E. Mackay was also speedily disposed of for the same number of runs.

Lawrence commenced batting and punished Champion's bowling severely. He put up the abnormal score of 25 runs in one over and later on he hit ten boundaries and one for five from eleven successive balls, which is a splendid record of batsmanship. E. F. Fincher partnered Lawrence until the latter was dismissed l.b.w. for 74 runs. Fincher carried on in great style with Lee, who after starting tremulously, settled down to some good and sound batting. Generally speaking the fielding of either Club was not good, while the bowling was moderately good on a rough wicket. Kowloon won by 6 runs and 7 wickets. The scores were as under:

SPORTS CLUB BEAT H.M.S. "SEAMEW"

In a match on Thursday afternoon over at Fati the Shamen Sports Club beat H.M.S. "Seamew" by 33 runs.

The wicket was very fiery and the batsmen seemed to be uncertain of themselves throughout the afternoon, and the bowlers on both sides were at the top of their form. Going in first the Club made 34 runs for the loss of 3 wickets and looked as if they might put up a good score, when there was a collapse and they were all out for 53. Goodman of the "Seamew" took 7 wickets for 8, bowling extremely well, and did the "hat trick".

The "Seamew" from the very first were in difficulties, losing their first 4 wickets for one run only. Linaker for the Club bowled very well indeed, taking 5 wickets for 0. Eventually the "Seamew" made 20.

Things You Know Best

About Yourself.

You know better than anybody else your own character, your own likes and dislikes, your own merits and defects. And you are also the best judge of your own physical condition.

If you lack flesh and weight, if you are pale, get easily tired by mental or physical exertion, have pains in the back, lack spirit and appetite, feel timid, depressed, and unable to grapple with the work of your daily life, you should know that your blood needs immediate attention, for it is only through your blood that your system can be revitalized and your health and strength renewed.

Knowing this, do not delay. Do not wait until your condition gets worse and you become really ill, but begin the right treatment at once, treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, the world-famous blood and nerve tonic, which has restored innumerable weak ailing men and women like you during the past forty years to robust vigour and the fully joy of living.

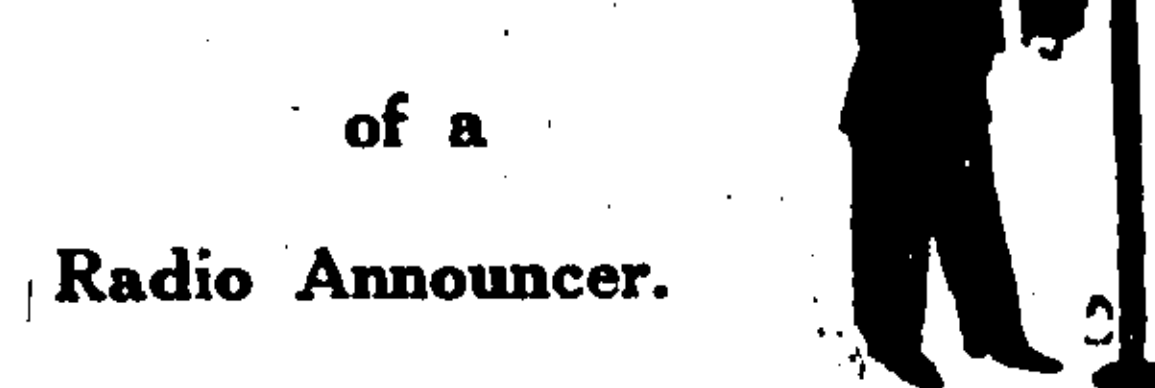

Your chemist can supply Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, price $1.50 per bottle, $3 for six bottles.

SWIMMING FETE

COLONY'S CHAMPIONSHIPS DECIDED ON SATURDAY

SOME FINE PERFORMANCES

Three more Championships of the Colony were decided in the V.R.C. bath on Saturday night, when the Club held its sixth night swimming fete of the season.

J. R. Johnstone broke another V.R.C. bath record by doing the 440 yards swim in 5 mins. 32.2/5 secs., thus clipping 17 seconds off the previous record of 5 mins. 49.2/5 secs., which is an extremely fine performance. This was one of the championship events.

Free Style Race
The other two Championships were Throwing the Water Polo Ball and the 100 yards Boys' Free Style race. For the first time the former championship was won by a Chinese, Wong Siang-hing "turning the trick" with a throw of 74 feet at the second attempt, the competition being decided by the best out of three throws. J. R. Johnstone was second with a throw of 65 feet.

Miss Ann Priller Benoit of Holyoke, Mass., is training in Toronto, Canada, for the Wrigley's Marathon Swim, which will be held in California. Miss Benoit finished fourth in the 1928 race, and feels that she has a chance to win this year.

The Boys' 100 yards swim for the Championship of the Colony attracted four entries—John Green, L. Remedios, J. Lawrence, and A. A. Rumjahn.

It was a fine struggle between Green and Lawrence who fought it out inch by inch all the way. Both put up fine spurts in the last few yards and Green just won by a touch.

A Good Start
Thanks to a good start, Miss L. Silva-Netto won the Ladies' 50 yards handicap race. Miss E. Anslow, who swam a good race from scratch, secured second place, finishing close to the winner, in spite of a heavy handicap.

There were two team races—the Inter-Hong event and a challenge race between the Royal Navy and Royal Artillery.

The Gunners, who had so far lorded it over other teams in the Services, met their Waterloo last night, losing badly to the Senior Service (strengthened by the return of the Fleet) by one full length of the bath!

Teams representing the Hong Kong Electric Company, the Chartered Bank, the Hong Kong Government, and the Hong Kong University took part in the Inter-Hong team race.

The Varsity won rather easily, with the Government securing second place.

The fete was closed with the usual water polo match. This time the Army and Navy clashed, and the Army secured revenge for their team race defeat by winning by the odd goal in three.

The game was a hard fought one with the result in doubt right up to the final whistle.

The Lyric Orchestra, under Mr. "Dick" d'Almada, provided music during the gala and afterwards played for dancing in the ball-room, where many couples enjoyed themselves until the "wee sma' hour."

Results

Below are appended the full results:—

50 yards Members' Handicap.—This event attracted 12 competitors and three heats had to be swum. The final result was: 1, W. Forsaith, Time: 26.3/5 secs.; 2, J. R. Soares, Time: 30 secs.

440 yards Free Style (Championship of the Colony).—There were three competitors in this race, two from the V.R.C. and one from the K.O.S.B. Lee-Cpl. Finlayson, the K.O.S.B. representative, had bad luck to slip into the bath just at the start and was badly left. He sportingly finished the course some distance behind the Victorians. The result was: 1, J. R. Johnstone, Time: 5 mins. 32.2/5 secs. (Record); and 2, L. Roza Pereira, Time: 6 mins. 03 secs.

50 yards Boys' Handicap.—Four competitors in event. It was a keen struggle all the way. The result was: 1, E. da Roza, Time: 30 secs.; 2, E. Marques, Time: 38 secs.

Throwing the Water Polo Ball (Championship of the Colony).—There were five competitors for this event. Wong Siang-hing put the result beyond doubt with his second throw which hit the other end of the bath. Result: 1, Wong Siang-hing, Distance: 74 feet; 2, J. R. Johnstone, Distance: 65 feet.

50 yards Ladies' Handicap.—Six competitors. Miss E. Anslow, who was scratch did the two lengths in 39 seconds, but had to concede first place to Miss Silva-Netto, who had 12 seconds start. Result: 1, Miss L. Silva-Netto, Time: 43 secs.; 2, Miss E. Anslow, Time: 39 secs. The other competitors were the Misses D. Hunt, P. Hunt, E. Booker and C. Allen.

100 yards Free Style (Boys' Championship of the Colony).—Four starters, with a thrilling finish between John Green and J. Lawrence. Result: 1, John Green, Time: 84 secs.; 2, J. Lawrence, Time: 84.2/5 secs. Won by a touch.

50 yards Free Style (Open to the Colony).—There were only two starters and the race developed into an inter-club struggle between the V.R.C. and the Chinese Bathing Club. The Victorian just won by a touch. Result: 1, W. Lawrence (V.R.C.), Time: 26 secs.; 2, Leung Si-man (C.B.C.), Time: 26.2/5 secs.

Inter-Hong Team Race.—Four teams competed. The University got well in front right from the start and increasing their lead with each man won comfortably. The Hong Kong Government was given a hard fight by Hong Kong Electric Co., and Chartered Bank for second place, but managed to beat them. Result: 1, Hong Kong University,

Time: 2 mins. 34 secs.; 2, Hong Kong Government, Time: 2 mins. 50 secs. There were five men in each team, and each swimmer had to do 50 yards.

Services Team Race.—This was a struggle between the Royal Navy and the Royal Artillery. The Senior Service won easily. Result: 1, Royal Navy, Time 3 mins. 14 secs.; 2, Royal Artillery, Time: 3 mins. 42 secs. Five men in each team, the first four swimmers did 50 yards each, and the last man of each team 100 yards each.

Water Polo.—Army beat Navy by two goals to one after a hard fought game.

SAMUEL PLIMSOLL

MEMORIAL TO SAILORS "PAL" 30 YEARS AFTER DEATH

The bronze bust of Samuel Plimsoll, the sailors' friend, which has been erected in Victoria Embankment Gardens, London, thirty years after his death, was unveiled recently by Sir Walter Runciman in the presence of representatives of all branches of the Merchant Service.

The Plimsoll line, through the familiar disc on the sides of ships which determines the depth to which they may be loaded, figures in designs forming part of the memorial, which has been erected by the National Union of Seamen.

Sir Walter Runciman, who in his young days sailed before the mast, said that Plimsoll, a hitherto obscure gentleman, who had no connection with the sea, was the means of carrying into law beneficent legislation which all the world had copied.

Because Plimsoll was not a sailor, he added, many seamen in his time, and especially captains, disliked his interference. A humorous Cardiff captain had the Plimsoll disc painted on his steamer's funnel.

"The advent of the late Havelock Wilson heralded," said Sir Walter Runciman, "the ending of many delusions, one of which was that it was part of a sailor's occupation to be drowned." But it took Wilson and his supporters twenty-five years to fulfil what Plimsoll had inaugurated.

CONDITIONS AT SEA

GRIEVANCES AIRD AT GENEVA CONFERENCE

EMPLOYERS' ATTITUDE

Geneva, Yesterday. After a prolonged discussion by the employers' group at the Maritime Conference to-day upon the resolution a movement for closure was carried by 64 votes to 3 whereafter the resolution was rejected by 64 votes to 24. Mr. W. R. Smith, M.P., Parliamentary Secretary to the Board of Trade, had previously ineffectually appealed to the Dutch delegate to withdraw the resolution. He declared that the British Government followed the procedure of its predecessors in the workers' section, nominated in accordance with Article 389 of the Peace Treaty. Mr. Ben Tillett, contended that if the Seamen's Union was not represented it was due to their own action.

Afterwards the employers met, presided over by Mr. Cuthbert Laws, of the Shipping Federation. They unanimously decided not to participate at the conference. The employers' uncompromising attitude is causing surprise to the workers, whose delegates think that the real purpose is to torpedo the conference, because of the employers' opposition to eight hours' work aboard ships.

The Conference continues its labours although Mr. Ben Tillett is not entitled to vote, because the British employers' delegate has not been designated.

COSTE'S FLIGHT

RESULTS OF THE NON-STOP TOUR

Paris, Saturday. The Air Ministry has received a report from Costes as to the result of his non-stop flight from Paris to Manchuria. He states that his flight lasted 61 hours and 19 minutes, and covered about 5,625 miles.—Reuter.

RAILWAY WAGES

London, Yesterday. A provisional agreement has been reached between the railway companies and the three railway trades unions, under which the existing agreement for a wage reduction of two and a half per cent. will be continued for six months until May 15, 1930.

The agreement which is subject to ratification by a delegate conference of the three Unions, represents a compromise, as the Companies desired the reduction to be continued for a further year.

The Trades Unions recently announced that the reduction would not be renewed at the expiry of the old agreement.—Reuter.

A call was received at the Hong Kong Fire Brigade Station this morning at about 10.15 o'clock for an ambulance to be dispatched to the Union Insurance Building. A coolie employed there; it was reported, had fallen and broken his thigh. Within fifteen minutes the unfortunate man was removed to the Government Civil Hospital. No further details of the accident were procurable.

Three cases of larceny were dealt with in the Kowloon Police Court this morning. For stealing six gunny bags from contractor in Reclamation-street, a Chinese man was fined $5 or, seven days; woman who took granite weighing two piculs (256.2/3 lbs.) from the same street met with a similar penalty; and a man who deprived a woman of No. 549, Shanghai-street, of a quilt, has begun a term of three weeks in prison.

of the President and himself had been to bring down from realms of dreams and imagination the aspirations which had been in all their hearts for so long—to establish peace, and to found those aspirations on solid agreements with political consequences. He had never hidden the fact that he was a patriot, but as well as being a patriot he was an internationalist. The patriotic mind of man he added, went out in wider and wider worlds, not to proclaim uniformity, but to proclaim a doctrine of co-operation of unequal though similar entities.

Diversity of Origin

"We glory in the diversity of our origin, and we bring that diversity to the feet of America, and make it part of our tribute to its greatness and part of our pledge to make that greatness still greater and finer in quality than it has ever been. That is part of the contribution we make to greet the American people in working out an historical civilisation."

Guest at Dinner

After other public engagements during the afternoon Mr. MacDonald was a guest in the evening at a dinner given by the Council of Foreign Relations. On this occasion he addressed in effect the people of the United States. His speech was broadcast by seventy stations throughout America.

The veteran American statesman Mr. Elihu Root presided. Mr. MacDonald said he wanted the world to know that during the entire course of conversations between President Hoover and himself there had never been any idea of an exclusive understanding between Britain and the United States. Nothing had been discussed which the two Governments would not be happy to see discussed on the same basis with all the Powers of the world. The understanding they had been trying to establish would always be incomplete and unsatisfactory until it became the common possession of all the nations of earth.—British Wireless Service.

A further grant of probate in respect of settled lands valued at $176,085 has been issued in respect of the estate of the second Earl of Northbrook, head of the banking firm of Barings.
